

Great Place to Work Survey Launches Today

From: Nariman Farvardin, President

To: Stevens Faculty and Staff

Last year, your voices helped us achieve Great Place to Work certification. This milestone highlighted the strength of our community and the positive impact we have on each other. In addition, your feedback sparked positive changes across our university. Now, it is time to build on that success.

We invite you to participate once again in the Great Place to Work survey, conducted by an independent third party. This survey, launching today, January 18, is a crucial part of our ongoing initiative to enhance and strengthen our university culture. Please take a moment to watch this video to learn more.

Your insights are invaluable. The survey will take approximately 15 minutes to complete and will delve into your thoughts on various aspects such as your job, our leaders, colleagues and more. Your responses are confidential and will only be seen in aggregated form, ensuring your privacy.

You should have just received an email from Great Place to Work (hello@invite.emprising.com) — it is a legitimate invitation even if you find it in your "junk" or "other" Outlook email inbox. The survey window is open from January 18 through February 1.

Let us continue the journey of making Stevens an even better place. Thank you for your unwavering support and dedication.

Per aspera ad astra.
