To the Stevens Community,

I am pleased to invite you to attend the OnStage at Stevens spring production, “Tribute to Broadway,” on Thursday, March 9, 2017 at 8:00 p.m. in DeBaun Auditorium. In December, Stevens hosted the inaugural OnStage at Stevens production, a sold out holiday concert performed by members of the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra, in a packed DeBaun Auditorium. The first-rate performance was enjoyed by more than 400 members of the Stevens, Hoboken, and surrounding communities.

For the spring production, members of the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra will take the stage at DeBaun Auditorium once again to perform the iconic music of legendary Broadway composers Leonard Bernstein, George Gershwin, Richard Rodgers, Jerry Bock and Sir Andrew Lloyd Webber from classics such as The Sound of Music, West Side Story, The Phantom of the Opera and more.

Launched in December, OnStage at Stevens is a new series that brings premier music, dance, literary arts, and other artistic and cultural productions to campus for the enjoyment of the Stevens and Hoboken communities, as well as friends throughout the NYC metropolitan region. OnStage at Stevens symbolizes the university’s new and expanded focus beyond our historic roots as a science and technology-centric institution.

Visit stevens.edu/onstage to purchase tickets, explore sponsorship opportunities, and for additional information on the program.

I hope you will join me in sharing this exciting news with your friends, family, classmates, neighbors, and colleagues and inviting them to participate in this special event. I look forward to seeing you there.
