1. Please describe your employment or research assignment (below or attached). If you do not have an exact placement yet, describe the type of internship program you have applied for, including whether you will be taking it for credit. Tell us why you are a good fit for this scholarship, why you are interested in an international work experience, and how your participation in this program will strengthen your studies or resume. Tell us of any leadership roles you have held on campus and experience or achievements made outside of Stevens. Please share any hardships you have endured due to the pandemic, and steps taken to manage the hardships.

Within a month of returning to campus, you must provide the Director of Donor Relations and Stewardship from the Office of Development, a two-page report on your experience overseas. Your report should include an overview of the program, and what you hope to achieve by participating. Describe in detail the type of work you did, how you benefitted from the educational and cultural experience, how it prepares you for your future career, and most importantly, show your appreciation for the financial support you received through the funding you received. Please know that this report will be shared with the alumni who established and support the Fund.

Please email your report to gbrannan@stevens.edu.

I understand the requirement to submit the above referenced two-page report within one month of completion of my international internship.

Signature Date

Completed applications and questions should be directed Susi Rachouh, Director of International Programs, studyabroad@stevens.edu. Applications are rolling but the final application deadline is May 15, 2022. You can apply before you have finalized your internship placement, but you should know which program you are applying for.
