

Office of the President

A Note from President Farvardin

McLean Hall's Chemical Biology Lab, a teaching lab used for in-depth research training of undergraduate and graduate students, was recently modernized to better serve our community. President Farvardin stopped by to show it off.

This renovation is just one of the exciting upgrades to our campus this fall. Improved facilities for research, refreshed training spaces and more are awaiting our students as they return to campus.

©2026 Stevens Institute of Technology.

View this email online.