Class of 2025, today marks a momentous occasion. I extend my heartfelt congratulations on your graduation from Stevens Institute of Technology. Today, we celebrate not only your academic accomplishments but also your resilience, determination and innovative spirit.

As you stand on the threshold of your future, poised to embark on new adventures and challenges, I invite you to reflect on the transformative journey that has brought you to this milestone. Your time at Stevens has unfolded during an era of significant global and technological shifts, and you have navigated these changes with exceptional adaptability and perseverance.

Behind the scenes of your graduate experience lies far more than what meets the eye — the rigorous research, the intellectual discoveries, the global perspectives gained and the professional networks established. These elements have prepared you to step confidently into leadership roles in your chosen fields.

At Stevens, we have always prepared our students to be at the forefront of technological innovation while remaining grounded in humanity. Your advanced education has equipped you with specialized expertise, critical thinking skills and ethical awareness needed to address complex challenges. As you enter a world where technology continues to transform every aspect of our lives, I am confident that you will harness these tools to create positive change while navigating their complexities with wisdom.

Innovation is not merely about creating something new. It is about challenging established thinking, pushing boundaries and embracing transformation. It is about having the courage to question conventional wisdom and pursue solutions that others might overlook.

Your educational journey has coincided with — and helped propel — Stevens' own remarkable ascent as a premier technological university. And, just like you, Stevens continues to write its story, celebrating achievements while striving for an even better tomorrow.

As you chart your course forward, know that the Stevens family will always be here for you. You are joining a powerful network of nearly 60,000 Stevens alumni worldwide, each with unique experiences and insights to share. Lean on this community for support, guidance and inspiration as you navigate the next phase of your career and life.

Before I conclude, allow me to take a moment to extend my heartfelt gratitude to the families and friends who have supported our graduates throughout their journeys. Today, we also celebrate your role in this achievement.

To the Class of 2025, remember that no matter where life takes you, you will always be a part of the Stevens family and have a home in Hoboken. Approach the future with the same curiosity, determination and courage that brought you to this milestone.

May the future hold boundless opportunities for each of you. Come back and visit us often.

Per aspera ad astra!
