

YOUR GUIDE TO ADMISSIONS INTERVIEWS

The admissions interview is a one-on-one meeting between a prospective high school senior or transfer student and either an admissions counselor or graduate assistant. It's a great opportunity for us to learn more about you beyond your college application and for you to ask questions, explore campus life and see if Stevens is the right fit for you!

Frequently Asked Questions

IS THE ADMISSIONS INTERVIEW REQUIRED?

No! Admissions interviews are an optional part of the application process, if you choose to complete one, it will be considered as part of your application review. If you are unable to interview, there will be no impact to your application.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO PARTICIPATE?

Domestic and international high school seniors applying for first-year admission and prospective transfer students are welcome to interview. Students applying to the Accelerated Pre-Med or Pre-Law programs may also participate, but this interview does not fulfill the program-specific requirement. Those selected for a program interview will be contacted separately.

WHY SHOULD I INTERVIEW WITH STEVENS?

The interview is a great opportunity for students to share more about themselves beyond the application, including their interests, experiences and goals. It's also a chance to ask questions and gain a clearer understanding of what Stevens has to offer academically, socially and professionally.

WHAT TYPES OF QUESTIONS WILL BE ASKED?

Interviews are conversational and may touch on academic interests, extracurricular activities, college goals and what drew the you to Stevens. There are no trick questions!

DO I NEED TO BRING ANYTHING TO THE INTERVIEW?

No need to bring a transcript, resume, or any documents. Just bring your curiosity, your questions and your best self. We're excited to get to know you!

IS THERE A DEADLINE TO INTERVIEW?

Students interested in interviewing with Stevens must complete their interview by their application round deadline.
