To Faculty, Staff and Students:

In our continuing efforts to instill pride in Stevens' accomplishments and foster a sense of community among students, faculty and staff, I am delighted to announce the first-ever Attila Spirit Day on Wednesday, April 27th, 11:30 a.m. – 5 p.m.

The day's events will include the following:

- Faculty and Staff Excellence Awards and Recognition Ceremony followed by a Luncheon – a celebration to recognize our Excellence Award winners and colleagues who have reached service milestones
- Attila Spirit Day – a carnival-like atmosphere filled with fun activities and food for all
- Duck Dash – a spirited competition that offers students, faculty and staff an opportunity to work together as they compete against fellow Stevens community members (a Stevens version of “The Amazing Race”)

Attila Spirit Day will be a fun and festive way for all in the Stevens community to show their school spirit, celebrate with each other and develop and renew friendships. To allow for full participation, campus offices will close on April 27th from 3:00 - 5:00 p.m. which coincides with the academic free period. We encourage everyone to join us and show your Stevens spirit.

I want to particularly express my appreciation to the Divisions of Human Resources, Student Affairs and Academic Affairs for conceptualizing and planning this event.
