To Students, Faculty, and Staff:

Once again, I take this opportunity to restate Stevens' values and denounce all forms of hatred and violence. In light of the recent anti-Semitic violence, I offer my and our university community's support to Jewish members of our community and to implore each of us to stand against violence and hatred in all forms.

Stevens' mission is to inspire, nurture, and educate leaders in tomorrow's technology-centric environment while contributing to the solution of the most challenging problems of our time. In support of this mission, we remain committed to the values of academic freedom and nondiscrimination in all that we do. Stevens is a community enriched and strengthened by the talents, contributions, and engagement of each member, regardless of race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, and all other attributes protected by Stevens' nondiscrimination policy. We will continue to work earnestly and proactively to provide a safe, inviting, and supportive environment for all members of our community.

If you witness anti-Semitic acts or any other acts of hatred, violence, or bias, please follow the guidance in our Policy on Discrimination, Harassment & Bias Incidents and report it through MyStevens Report a Concern immediately.

Per aspera ad astra,

Nariman Farvardin
President
