To the Stevens Community:

I am pleased to announce the formation of a Search Committee to assist in the selection of Stevens' next Vice President for Information Technology and Chief Information Officer.

Stevens will be working with the executive search firm, Koya Leadership Partners, to fill this position. This firm was selected after meeting with several national search firms who specialize in this field. The role of the Search Committee will be to work with executive leadership, key stakeholders, and the search firm to develop the position description, review candidates' materials, interview selected candidates, and present their recommendation for a slate of finalists.

I am grateful to the following colleagues who have agreed to serve on this committee:

- Dr. Giuseppe Ateniese, Farber Chair Professor and Department Chair, Department of Computer Science (Search Committee Chair)
- Ms. Barbara Arnett, Business Intelligence Architect, Division of Information Technology
- Ms. Frances Bouchoux, Chief Compliance Officer, Division of Finance
- Ms. Cindy Chin, Associate Provost, Office of the Provost
- Dr. Christos Christodoulatos, Professor, Department of Civil, Environmental & Ocean Engineering and Director, Center for Environmental Systems
- Mr. Keiron DeFreitas, Systems Administrator, Division of Information Technology
- Dr. Dominic Duggan, Associate Professor, Department of Computer Science
- Ms. Susan Gross, Assistant Vice President for Financial Aid and Undergraduate Admissions
- Ms. Beth McGrath, Vice President for Government and Community Relations/Chief of Staff
- Mr. Edward Minnix III, Cybersecurity Student, Class of '20
- Mr. Warren Petty, Vice President for Human Resources
- Dr. Kelland Thomas, Dean of the College of Arts and Letters

Please join me in thanking the committee members for their efforts in the coming months. I encourage all faculty and staff to provide input to the committee and to give its members your full cooperation and support.

Per aspera ad astra,

Nariman Farvardin
President
