To release your record for transfer purposes, please provide your international student advisor at your previous or current school the following Stevens School code: P-1-00027

If you require a change of status to J-1, you may either apply with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) or travel outside the U.S and be admitted in J status. If you travel, you must apply for a J-1 visa at a U.S. consulate abroad to be admitted in J-1 status.

Dependents Accompanying Student:

Dependents accompanying or following to join an Exchange Visitor (EV) require their own DS-2019s to apply for a visa and to be admitted to the U.S. in J-2 status. For the purpose of visa sponsorship, dependents consist of a spouse and minor children. Dependents in J-2 status will be required to have, and present evidence of health insurance coverage for the duration of the EV's program participation. This is true even if the J-2 will be making short, occasional visits to the U.S. in J-2 status. Dependents who come for short visits only may want to consider a tourist visa (B-2) to visit the U.S.
